

Dear patron of the arts,

My name is Krissy Haganman and I am with FC Choirs, Inc. This year, the Franklin Central Choral Department will be hosting our 12th annual holiday extravaganza, Sounds of the Season. In addition to the concert, we are hosting our 4th annual silent auction fundraiser that will run alongside the concerts that weekend. Sounds of the Season will be held at Franklin Central High School on December 9th - 12th, 2021.

The purpose of this fundraiser is to raise money for the department, keeping future participation fees at an affordable rate for all students, thus allowing for more involvement in the outstanding Franklin Central High School Choral Department. Our event is expected to draw an audience of over 3,800 patrons and participating businesses will be prominently featured at our event and the online auction site throughout the weekend. In addition, each program contains a "support our supporters" flyer listing contact details for these businesses.

Any donation of a product or service is greatly appreciated and also tax deductible. Your donation can be something as simple as a gift certificate to your business (or another business), your product, or service of expertise. If you have something more elaborate in mind like a specialty collector's item, a one of a kind experience package or artwork by a local artist - we would LOVE to feature that, too!

In recent years, the Franklin Central High School Choirs have won more than eight State Championships and performed in many places across the Midwest and beyond, including Germany, Austria, and Italy. Nearly 600 students participate in the ten choirs, making Franklin Central home to one of the largest, most competitive choir programs in the state and nation.

A donation form for silent auction items is attached. Simply fill it out, then call or email us and we will handle everything else.

We hope that you will consider being involved in this event and helping students be a part of this award-winning organization. Thank you for your consideration!

Cordially,

Krissy Haganman

Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your request dated Sep. 15, 2017, regarding your tax-exempt status.

We issued you a determination letter in January 2005, recognizing you as tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3).

Our records also indicate you're not a private foundation as defined under IRC Section 509(a) because you're described in IRC Section 509(a)(2).

Donors can deduct contributions they make to you as provided in IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts under IRC Sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

In the heading of this letter, we indicated whether you must file an annual information return. If a return is required, you must file Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-N, or 990-PF by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. IRC Section 6033(j) provides that, if you don't file a required annual information return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked on the filing due date of the third required return or notice.

For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit www.irs.gov or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you have questions, call 1-877-829-5500 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., local time, Monday through Friday (Alaska and Hawaii follow Pacific Time).

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
 - Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
 - Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 - Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
 - Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
 - Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.
- If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.*
